Baltimore at Louisville.

(Special to The Times.)
Louisville, May 20.—The grounds were again too wet for play today, and after waiting until 4 o'clock, the game was declared off.

It will be played during the next visit of the Senators to Louisville next fall. The Washingtons made many new friends in the Falls City on their present trip. The club seems to be very popular and the local press and public are profuse with their praise of Capt. Joyce. He seems to have no trouble in getting the "red" there into the lists, both the veterans of the team and the youngsters.

The youngsters, McCaskey, Rogers, Lush and McManis did not seem at all afraid of the old leaguers of other clubs. They kick, scrap and play with a vim that attests to Joyce's good schooling. Joyce continued to be the managerial force of the season by the fans of Louisville.

The Senators left on a fast train for Chicago this evening. Mercer will pitch the opening game at Chicago and Masi and Gorman will occupy the south in the other two. It is the opinion here that Washington will take two games from the Cubs.

Tom Kinslow, of your city, has been signed by Manager McGinnis and will report within the next few days. Tom will materially strengthen the Senators, and his signing is most popular with the local public.

Yarny Anderson has been given ten days' notice of release by Mr. Wagner. Anderson is in splendid condition, and will play in the next game with a National League Club.

"Steve" King, the veteran pitcher, has been signed in accordance with instructions from President Wagner.

LATHAM FOR PORTLAND.

(Special to The Times.)
Boston, Mass., May 20.—Boston is decreasing expenses with a vengeance. Dolan has been the only one in the party. Young has been loaned to Milwaukee and Tenney to Springfield, while Jack Ryan was sent to the St. Louis club.

It seems that Tenney did not want to be loaned out but was told it was a case of go where you were told to go, and he chose the farm. Ryan, however, refused to go to either Milwaukee or Portland, and was given his release.

"Jack" said he did not care to play in a minor league for he could get chances to play in the big league. He wanted to locate in the east if possible. Ryan's club was first to bid him. He had not successfully hit his bid and the announcement of his release was very much in the line of a surprise.

The Portland club of the New England League is negotiating for the famous Arlie Latham, just released from the St. Louis team of the big league. Manager Frank J. Leonard has known Latham intimately for many years. The St. Louis club, each other in Lynn, Mass.

The signing of Latham would be a great stroke of strategy for the St. Louis club. It can be made "The Babe" will be seen in a Portland uniform.

BROOKLYN BATTED HARD.

Pittsburgh was badly beaten in a Farical Exhibition.
Pittsburgh, Pa., May 20.—The game with Brooklyn today was played in a drizzling rain. The game was pitched for 1 1/2 hours, but was called off at the end of the third inning. The latter was a matter of course, as the rain was too heavy to continue.

In securing a command—lead, Pittsburgh played a game of "cat and mouse" with Brooklyn. The game was called off at the end of the third inning, but the game was not over. The game was called off at the end of the third inning, but the game was not over.
